Leadership Skills for Project Managers

The Upstate New York Chapter of the Project Management Institute announces its Tenth Anniversary Professional Development Day (PDD)

Monday, May 23, 2016
8:30 AM – 4:30 PM
Registration: 7:30 AM
Desmond Hotel and Conference Center
7 PDUs

James T. Brown is a PHD from the University of Central Florida and an MS in Engineering from Florida University of Technology. He has 16 years of Project Management experience, is an active PMP, has authored several books on project management, and is the president of SEBA solutions.

SEBA® Solutions provides practical application experiences that ensure immediate positive results. Successful project management and quality improvements cannot be achieved with tools and methods alone. Human dynamics play a significant role. The application of leadership, judgment and teamwork skills are required and these themes are interwoven throughout the training experience in all courses.

“Dynamic presenter, key leadership information for implementation in project management that I can apply immediately. Very insightful and worthwhile. Can be practically applied to my work scenarios.” – R. Bergman, ADT Security Systems, Inc.

See reverse for more detail
Leadership Skills for Project Managers

With James T. Brown Ph.D.
8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
7 PDUs
Plus an opportunity to complete 1 additional Change Management PDU online

Course Objectives/Outline

This course provides participants with leadership skills to successfully navigate all the challenges in a demanding project environment, including information on team building, communication, human behavior, and leadership.

After completion of this course the participant will be able to:

- Identify the traits of successful leaders and emulate the characteristics of successful leaders
- Build a strong team
- Recognize the importance of being an observer and learner of human behavior
- Understand the importance of relationship building to achieving project success
- Appreciate what motivates different individuals within project teams
- Engage team members to resolve issues
- Create escalation strategies to facilitate resolution of complex problems

Online registration and payment available at the UNY PMI Web Site
http://pmiuny.org/

James T. Brown Ph.D., president of SEBA® Solutions Inc., a Registered Education Provider for the Project Management Institute, has provided project management training for dozens of companies nationally and internationally. He has sixteen years of NASA experience that includes “hands on” experience as a team member, project manager and serving in executive level organizational leadership roles.

He has served as a subject matter expert for a leading project software vendor and is the author of The Handbook of Program Management published by McGraw-Hill. He also provides project management training online and has been published in numerous project management publications including PM Network, PE Magazine, PMI Community Post, Projects@Work, The Systems Thinker and PM World Today.

https://www.sebasolutions.com/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PDD Pricing</th>
<th>Early bird before April 1, 2016</th>
<th>On or after April 2, 2016</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>PMI UNY Member</td>
<td>$250</td>
<td>$300</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Non-Member</td>
<td>$300</td>
<td>$350</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Discount $50 for Group / Student / PDD Volunteers. Group Discount code available upon request.
Corporate Group Discount: 5 or more persons, if registering from same company or government agency. Must register for Corporate Discounts by April 1. Only one $50 discount may be used per registration.

Registration includes all materials, handouts, continental breakfast and full lunch.